

Mark TWAIN HIMSELF

One-Man Show

Mark Twain (Samuel Langhorne Clemens)

Richard Garey

The following list of topics may or may not be covered by Mr. Twain in his lecture. It is provided for those who may be lost without a mental map.

Introductions	My Compliment Collection
My Birth & Childhood	The Golden Arm
How a Story is to be Told	When I was a Boy
Huckleberry Finn	It's Lovely to Live on a Raft
Florida and Hannibal	Letters to Mr. Twain
I Wish to be a Pirate	The Mississippi River
Riverboat Captain	Memories
The Interview	My Uncle's Farm
Aunt Rachel	My Mother
Advice to Boys & Girls	Go West, Young Man
Bemis and the Buffalo	Virginia City Days
My Trip by Train	Learning to Ride a Bicycle
The Blue Jay Yarn	Grandfather's Old Ram

Special Programming

In addition to the acclaimed stage show Mark Twain Himself, the following special Mark Twain shows may be scheduled:

- Mark Twain for President
- The Women in My Life
- How to Tell a Story
- Mark Twain on Slavery
- Life on the Mississippi
- Mark Twain's Hannibal

“I like a good story well told. That is the reason I am sometimes forced to tell them myself.”

—Mark Twain

The Performer

Richard Garey combines his passion as a stage actor and his skill as a storyteller in developing original theater productions that explore the American experience in arts and literature. Garey has performed his original, one-man shows in over 40 states in theaters, on college/university campuses, in public & private schools, and for libraries and museums and festivals.

In a theater career that spans three decades, Garey has performed everything from Shakespeare to musicals, taught theater and literature, appeared in television commercials, and directed numerous plays and musicals over the years. Garey has researched and assembled the more than six hours of Mark Twain material performed in MARK TWAIN HIMSELF. Richard

“When I was a boy growing up on the banks of the Mississippi River the life that I led with my comrades was full of charm and so is the memory of it yet. I was regularly drowned in that river every summer”

—Mark Twain

EISENPETER PRODUCTIONS P.O. BOX 33, BARRY, IL 62312
217-335-3338