Mark Twain on Slavery

The Mark Twain Theater Experience
from Hannibal, Missouri

*Authentic in Every Detail
All from the Pen of Mark Twain*

This show entertains in typical Twain style but also moves to the serious side as Sam Clemens tackles the issue of slavery. In his own words, Clemens tells of his experiences and the characters who shaped his understanding of slavery from his days in Hannibal to his world-wide fame. Full of stories and anecdotes from Uncle Daniel to the adventures of Huck and Jim, this show reveals the Mark Twain you never knew. This live theater show has been performed to great reviews in over forty states and Canada and now makes its home in Hannibal's Planters Barn Theater.

Richard Garey—Actor

Recent Reviews and Comments

“Garey is a stage actor with more than 30 years of experience. He claims not to imitate Twain but to portray him. Garey does a great job of making the audience believe it is watching an original Twain lecture. Twain was a master storyteller—perhaps one of America’s best ever—and Garey bring this to life on the stage. The material is top-notch and Garey gives it the best reading since Twain originally delivered it.”

—George Breithaupt Mt. Vernon News

“Amazing show. I forgot I was at a play.”

—The Bowers

“With great affection to you for keeping Mark Twain alive.” —Charlotte Mong, New York

“I have attended live theatre all my life. This show was amazing! Sir, you are no Hal Holbrook. I have seen Hal Holbrook’s show, and you are better than Hal Holbrook.”

—Alice Mason, Theatre Teacher, Texas

“THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH! It was better than Ringling Brothers!”

—Gordy Harris, Gulfport, MS

“Great Show! The whole family enjoyed it.”

—The Letchers, Brandywine, MD

“Garey has big shoes to fill, and he fills them.”

—KSDK Television “Show Me St. Louis”

“We laughed until we cried. What a fun evening. We loved it!”

—Riley & Carol Smith

“You deserve all the compliments. Thanks.”

—The Thomas Family, Canada

“It was fun to step back 150 years. Great Job!”

—Jim and Linda Asher, MN
