

THE CENTURION

Performed by Richard Garey
Available spring of 2010

Through the magic of the stage, travel back 2000 years to the Roman Empire. Meet Flavius, Roman centurion, veteran of numerous campaigns, and careful observer of all things. Flavius takes you on a journey through his army life, his military campaigns, his amazing adventures and misadventures, and his political intrigues. He also spins the tale of the circumstances that led to his assignment to dreaded Judea, his encounter with a teacher called Jesus, a special trial and crucifixion, and his changed life. This play is the power and glory of the gospel told by a no-nonsense military man who saw it all. The Centurion is available for booking in the spring of 2010.
